

STEPS TO CIVILIZATION

		TION		TION		TION
& <input type="radio"/> _____–must move from place to place in search of food <input type="radio"/> <input type="radio"/> Very little _____ _____ <input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/> “_____” wild plants and animals to raise at _____ <input type="radio"/> <input type="radio"/> _____ increases <input type="radio"/> <input type="radio"/> increased _____ _____	<input type="radio"/> different _____ – not everyone farmers <input type="radio"/> <input type="radio"/> <input type="radio"/> improve material culture with _____	<input type="radio"/> growth of _____ <input type="radio"/> center of _____ (trade) <input type="radio"/> Still supported by _____ in the countryside	<input type="radio"/> a _____ with cities <input type="radio"/> <input type="radio"/> <input type="radio"/> Social _____ <input type="radio"/> Often characterized by _____, _____ & _____

* Domesticated plants in Meso America included _____, beans, _____, tomatoes, and chili peppers _____, _____, & _____ (American Triad) became the basis of Meso American Civilization. The three plants support each other while they grow and provide a complete _____ for the diet.

* _____, peanuts, cassava, _____ and guinea pigs were domesticated in South America